AFFILIATE PROGRAMME

We have an affiliate marketing partnership with Booking.com

A question we are often asked: How can we offer Lifetime advertising?

Our fees cover the setup and administration of your venue across all six of our digital platforms.

Our long-term revenue stream comes from affiliate partnerships to generate revenue – meaning the risk is on us, not you. We work with trusted and leading booking platforms such as Booking.com to ensure a sustainable model that benefits both our members, our business and your venue. It's a win - win - win.

In the terms and conditions, you grant us a licence to use affiliate programmes to promote your venue, restaurant, accommodation, weddings, and any other services you offer.

You also give us permission to use your images copyright-free for promotional purposes across all products within The Whitespace Group, currently and in the future.
